Come along to a beautiful concert of Baroque music followed by tea and home made cakes 3pm, Saturday 27th June at Newtimber Church.

The concert will feature our organist, Nick Andrews, and three of his talented students, all of whom are off to great things at university soon.

The concert will include a complete performance of Handel's organ concerto, "The cuckoo and the nightingale". Amar Clark will perform on the church organ with Nick providing the orchestra on his keyboard. Charlie Bloch and Daniel Vincent will sing some wonderful Bach and Handel.

It will be a delightful hour of music with the added attraction of the best cakes. A very reasonable £10 on the door - you really should come
